

MINI LOAN APP PROJECT

A simple design of four microservice was used for this project

- Customer Service: Which holds the customer database and communicates with other micro services, consuming the rest APIs of these micro services.
- Loan Service: Holds the loan database and records loans taken by each customer.
- Product Service: Holds the product database and is essentially used to create new products.
- Wallet: This holds the wallet database created upon registration of a user.